

AFTER THE APPLAUSE

*Music's Greatest Work
Begins After the Music Ends*

An annual celebration of music's enduring social impact

Organized by Give A Note Foundation • Music Has Healing Power • Rhythm & Relief

Music's greatest work begins after the music ends—in classrooms where creativity is discovered, in hospitals where healing begins, and in communities where music restores connection, hope, and belonging.

After the Applause* celebrates music not simply as entertainment, but as one of society's most powerful forces for education, healing, and human connection.

Through intimate performances and unexpected collaborations, the evening brings together artists, audiences, and supporters who share a belief in music's enduring capacity to enrich lives and strengthen communities.

More than an evening of performance, After the Applause is the beginning of an annual tradition celebrating music's lasting contribution to society.

MUSIC TEACHES US • MUSIC HEALS US • MUSIC CONNECTS US

Three Expressions of One Mission

Give A Note Foundation: Expanding access to music education and ensuring every young person has the opportunity to discover their creative voice.

Music Has Healing Power: Bringing hope, comfort, and healing to children and families through the transformative power of music.

Rhythm & Relief: Supporting organizations working at the intersection of music, health, and community to improve lives through the power of music.
